Boleslav and Astridr send greetings to the Outlands.

We thank the event coordinator of Crown Tournament, Sir Alaric Dimitrievich Razvedchikov for all of the time and dedication he put into organizing the event. We love that site, it holds good memories for us.

We extend our best wishes and congratulations to Crown Prince Alrik and Crown Princess Salomea. The tournament was hard fought and the victory well deserved. We are looking forward to working with their Royal Highnesses during the next two months, especially at treaty negotiations in Atenveldt October 18th.

We would like to take a moment to express our feelings regarding this upcoming Estrella War and to also share our thoughts on our kingdom's standing in this matter. We have, with the aid of several of our kingdom's outstanding peers, put a considerable amount of energy into preparing and arranging this upcoming Estrella War. We have polled several of our peers and populace, and while there has been some opposition to the Outlands continued-involvement at Estrella, we have decided to remain as a Principal at our one annual War.

It is often too easy to remember the things that we disliked in a situation instead of focusing our thoughts on those things that we remember as being good and glorious. With that in mind and because of how many incredible memories that this very event has created for us we have decided on our path. As many know, we have had a relatively short time playing this wonderful game, which we hold so dear. Many of our ideas and thoughts are founded on new and current memories, and are not based on many years of hardship and broken promises that unfortunately seem to ring clear in many of our kingdoms founding Peers. We hope that through the hard work of ourselves and our heirs that perhaps those ideas of fun and camaraderie that we have found in our time in the SCA, can ring true again across our domain. It is our hope that the Outlands as a Kingdom may proudly go to our western cousins and share in this dream that brought us all together. We look forward to many good and glorious recollections to come, in whatever lands our paths may lead us.

Thank you to the autocrats of al-Barran's champions, Lord Ylyndl and Eorl Mordygan. We also thank Sir Kragon for once again allowing al-Barran to use Land's End for this fun event.

Kingdom Seneshal

It has been a great and busy summer. I hope all of you have been able to enjoy some of the many events that have taken place.

I want to thank the Barony of Dragonspine for hosting Crown Tournament as always it was fun and exciting. I join with all the outlands in congratulating the Crown Prince and Princess.

Their Majesties have announced absolute banishment against the following persons, Eric Von Magnus, Annette Garcia, and James Garcia. Their Majesties have announced banishment from the Royal Presence for Andrev. All banishments were announced at Crown Tournament.

There has been a change to Kingdom Law, the following has been added to Section III Selection of Royalty:

Subsection G. . Prospective Entrants and Consorts must submit a letter of their intent to vie in the Crown Tournament Lists. Letters must include both entrant's and consort's SCA registered or submitted name, legal name, home address, phone contact, Email address, membership number and expiration date. Other information required as well as a deadline for letters to be received is at the discretion of the Crown Failure to include this information in the Letter of Intent may give reason for the Crown to deny entry in the Crown List Tournament.

Cooler weather is just around the corner and there are rumors of War on our western border.

Yours in Service

Duncan

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands

Many new policies have come from Society this past year regarding youth, youth activities, parental responsibilities at events, local group officers' responsibilities, Ministers of Children, and youth activity volunteers and coordinators. These are the same policies that have been the subject of my letters to the Outlandish Herald in recent months.

We'll be talking about these policies and what they mean for you and your local group at our two hour meeting at Stags Con, 3 to 5 pm on October 11 in al-Barran. We hope that everyone interested in plans for our youth and the new Society policies will attend this meeting personally or send a friend.

In service to the Outlands,
Cady Jayne Barber

Archer General

Greetings!

We have a war coming up! Find out who is on the war council and work with these people to make the next war fun. And, of course, start saving up the money to pay for that gas!

All marshals are to take the time to inspect all armour and weapons in their area. Not all at once. But work with the various participants in verifying that the armour and/or weapons are legal. Even check the padding and foot wear. There have been several issues of unsafe/illegal equipment. Starting now, will give everyone the time to repair and work with others. Please understand that at no time is unsafe or illegal equipment to be used.

Attention combat archers:
Combat Archery Ammunition - (August 22, 2008)
Effective immediately, the following changes to equipment are required due to repeated incidents of helm penetrations:

- Combat Archery ammunition may have at most 1.25" thick padding on the tip after taping.
- All UHMW & Siloflex/Rubber Stopper ammunition must have a side wrap of foam added that brings the total diameter of the blunt to at least 1.5" after taping. This wrap must extend from the tip to at least 1/2" over the UHMW or Siloflex itself.
- All fletches on any arrows, bolts, or thrown weapons can project no further than 1/2" from the shaft, or must be 1.5" thick.

NOTE: All Marshals need to be rigorous in their inspections of all tips (arrows & thrusting) and mass weapons. Ensure that the foam is firm, will not bend over, returns to shape when compressed, and can not be easily pushed into a legal helm more than 1/2".

Thank you keeping up with the inspections and the rule changes.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings,

Our Southern A&S Deputy, THL Maimuna will be stepping down from her deputy position September 30th. I personally would like to thank her for all of her support and hard work that she has provided for this Kingdom and office. I wish her luck with her future endeavors.

Stag's Con will be here in a couple of weeks, I hope to see all there. Please see the Stag's Con Schedule in this article or on the website for A&S section. I have meetings set up for the Kingdom Deputies, all A&S officers and deputes, so please look at the schedule for your time. Also that afternoon, there will be open discussions about Kingdom venues, please feel free to come with ideas, resolutions or just to listen. Drive safely.

YIS,
Mistress Tana a l'Esprit Fort

White Stag

Stagscon is here! If you are a herald or are interested in heraldry at all, stop by the heralds' room. There will be a "how to be a herald" class in the morning, a local/kingdom herald meeting and a consultation table in the afternoon, plus other classes.

Additionally, there are three kingdom staff positions open at this time: Gimlet (Ceremonies), Weel (Education), and Wharrow (Roll of Arms). Please see the postings to the outlands-heralds email list for more details. I am happy to answer any questions about these positions and will be accepting letters of interest until the end of October.

Caer Galen Toys for Tots

November 15, 2008
Hosted by the Barony of Caer Galen
Boulder County Fairgrounds Barn A and Indoor Arena
Autocrat: Carrick (303-949-4847, rjackson@justice.com)
Site Fee: One (or more!) new, unwrapped toy

My Friends:

The time draws nigh for people of the Outlands to once again come forward and show the world how things should be. How the concepts of Chivalry, Courtesy, and Honor didn't die in the Middle Ages, but live on today in those of us who think those things still matter. Time once again for us to help those less fortunate find hope in these troubling times.

I ask you to join me in Caer Galen on November 15, in a celebration of all that is best in the SCA: The Caer Galen Toys for Tots Championships! All year we've been raising toys in monthly tournaments. We've seen Don Max win his first tournament in the Outlands (ever!), and we've seen Baron Bjarki run face first onto the end of a glaive. Just imagine the sites you'll see at the main event! For example, we'll have:

-Armored Combat
-Rapier Combat
-Archery Shoots (hit the Grinch for extra points!)
-Equestrian (Where else but Caer Galen!)
-Foam Weapons (Kids vs. Adults melee, anyone?)

A donation lunch will be provided (with the proceeds going to purchase more toys), and the attendee bringing in the most toys will get a special prize.

Posters and invitations for corporate participation are available from the autocrat for anyone willing to put a box out at their office or favorite shops!

Directions:

From Boulder:

Take Diagonal (119) east to Longmont. As you enter Longmont, turn left onto Hover. Follow Hover to Nelson and turn right (just before the Target). Turn left into the fairgrounds. Follow the paved road to the Midway parking lot north of the exhibit center.

From the South on 287:

Take 287 north through Longmont to Ken Pratt Blvd (119). Turn left onto Ken Pratt. Turn right immediately after crossing the train tracks. You are now on Nelson. Drive until you reach the fairgrounds and turn right into the entrance way.

From the East on 119:

Take 119 into Longmont and follow it as it becomes Ken Pratt Blvd. Take a right immediately after crossing the train tracks. You are now on Nelson. Drive until you reach the fairgrounds and turn right into the entrance way.

al-Barran Day of A&S - "A Silver Lining"

November 22, 2008
(Site to be announced)

Site Fee: A new, unwrapped toy or $5 donation for Toys for Tots. The $3 Non-Member surcharge will still apply (in addition to the site fee) for non-members.
(So basically the Event is free and we are asking for donations for Toys for Tots!)

al-Barran A&S Champion Competition : A body of work containing three to five entries along with short documentation of no more than two pages for each entry will be accepted for the Champion competition. All submissions should be submitted by no later than 10am. One of the works should adhere to the theme for the day, â€œA silver liningâ€□; meaning, it should either be silver or have silver embellishment of some sort. This is silver in color, not necessarily having to be silver metal. The projects do not have to be completed, but can be a work in progr ess. (If you want to enter this work in the Estrella War challenge it will need to be of silver metal, is my understanding, but you may want to verify this on the Estrella War site or with our Kingdom A&S Minister - Mistress Tana.)

Newcomer's/First Timer's A&S Display : This is not particularly a competition, but a chance for our newcomers to display their works without the pressure of being judged. No documentation is required, but is welcomed. The projects do not have to be completed, but can be a work in progress. These A&S projects will be put on display with comment sheets and largesse containers. All entries should be submitted no later than 10:30am.

A donation lunch, prepared by Mistress Monika von Zell, will be served at noon. Bring your A&S entries, your thirst for knowledge and your hungry bellies and join us!

Mistress Cailte will be hosting a scriptorium throughout the day for our aspiring calligraphers and illuminators.

There will be classes to meet just about anyone's interests. We are still seeking teachers for these classes. If you are interested, please contact Lady Kimberly Blackwood at Snowbunny0 @ aol.com

Watch for more announcements and details in the coming months!

Invitation to Hunter's Feast

Fine and fair the foodstuffs brought forth by our land –
grains from the farmer, grown by hoe and hand, wild fruits found and gathered, or herdsman's slaughtered beast –
but none can compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Oats and wheat are splendid for making bonny bread;
cabbages and turnips both help to keep us fed;
carrots, kale and onions of foods are not the least,
but only serve to garnish our noble Hunter's Feast.

Apples crisp and ruddy make pies and cider fine;
berries red and purple and grapes make splendid wine;
beer and mead make merry soldier, prince and priest –
but these but serve to sweeten our noble Hunter's Feast.

Eggs and milk and cheeses, creamy, salt and sweet,
are excellent as staples and pleasant oft to eat;
chickens, ducks and peacocks are loved in west and east,
but still cannot compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Cow's meat for the Saxons, pig's meat for the Celts, mutton for the Normans, and goat's meat for all else –
every clan and nation has each their favorite beast,
but higher still they value our noble Hunter's Feast.

Salmon full of wisdom, antelope and hare,
wildfowl from the marshes, deer and boar and bear –
these make up our menu, so when my words have ceased come and join our company at our noble Hunter's Feast.

Unto the Kingdom of the Outlands, Barony of al-Barran, and all of the Known World do Their Excellencies, Gregor and Monika send warm greetings and invite one and all to celebrate this yuletide season at al-Barran's Midwinter.

This year we are reminiscing over all that has made al-Barran the Mighty Barony that it is today. From the beginning with His Excellency Sir Raymond the Quiet-Baron al-Barran, the two reigns of TE Sir Stefan of the Wanderers and Mistress Beau Marishka of the Romanies, to pur present Baron and Baroness, the giving Sir Gregor von Münchhausen and Lady Monika the Fair.

Let us not forget the ever-growing populace of this Barony, who truly make al-Barran beyond outstanding.

Planned so far-- a garb, table décor, and a gingerbread house competition.

SAVE THE DATE!!!! So whether you are 5th Century Polish, 11th Century French, 16th Century Welsh or what ever your time period --don your best garb and come out to celebrate for WE ARE AL-BARRAN!!!!

Keep an eye on the Outlandish Herald, Baronial Shaft (al-Barran), and the events web page for updated information!!!

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

Part I: An Intro to Period Ciphers
By: Ld. Jethro Stille

As we re-create the middle ages and the wars of the time, we often leave out an important element. It is an element that has caused battles to succeed, battles to fail, empires to fall, and heads to roll. That element is the art of secret writing also known as encryption.

It is easy to dismiss medieval ciphers (the methods for encrypting text) as trivial. Today we have 256 bit AES encryption and ansynchronous keys that clearly surpass the ideas of yesteryear. Within period, however, the mechanisms were developed, although not employed, that would allow for provably undecipherable crypts, something that our widely deployed methods of today cannot claim. Furthermore, some of the encryption methods were quite creative and at times beautiful. Many of the more sophisticated methods can still be quite challenging today. In fact, there were even enciphered texts written in period that took hundreds of years to decrypt and others that have yet to be!

It is my intent, therefore, to write a series of pieces in this space that will discuss different ciphers from period and then offer crytpograms for you to decipher. Cryptanalyzing (the practice of decrypting messages) is a great way to spend time while driving to an event or a way to engage the young ones.

As this is an introductory piece, this month's will be a simple substitution cipher. That is, only the letters of the alphabet will be used and each one will stand for only one other letter. In other words, if the letter 'g' stands for the letter 'k' then the letter 'g' will always stand for the letter 'k'. In that sense it will be much like the cryptoquips you might find in your local paper. The difference here is that there will be no spaces between words, much like period. Also, much like period, there will be plenty of misspelled words. There is some evidence to indicate that within period some messages purposefully had truly horrendous spellings.

Although there will be no spaces to help you decipher the text, a frequency attack will still enable you to solve it. A frequency attack, in its most basic form, is a method of finding the most common occurrence of a letter and associating it with one of the most common occurrences of a letter in a language ('e' and 'a' in English). Additionally, knowing which letters tend to go together and noting their regular occurrence can also be an aid in sovling the puzzle. For example, 't' and 'h' are often found together. Similarly, any time a letter is repeated (e.g. 'll' or 'tt') it is a clue.

Using these basic techniques you can begin practicing the art of cryptanalyzing. Similar techniques were used by Sir Francis Walsingham to thwart a plot by Mary Queen of Scots.
But that, O my Outlanders, is a story for another day.
